

I caannot believe that you are even considering pounding the small business and let the biggies take over. Small businesses after all create more jobs in this country than big business. At least that is wheat President Bush says. Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country.